

Amount Requested: $3,000,000

To fund the second phase of a project to develop high performance batteries using a NanoScission process to produce complex uniform electrode materials for maximum electrode performance. This phase will focus on the most promising materials identified in phase one.